TOM

(still a little confused)

Okay guys, I usually enjoy a good morning hallucination, but I have to get ready to teach my first day of classes today – so I'd appreciate it if you would all just scoot.

GEORGE

Tom, we know today is your first day of teaching. That's why we're here. We are here to help you.

(to audience)

Right?

TOM

What would really help is if I look over my lesson plan. It's going to be tough enough already.

GEORGE

Tom, it's not going to be tough. It's going to be easy. Why, when we get through with you, it'll be as easy as...

(The ENSEMBLE imitate congressmen arguing.)

TOM: Listen to all those congressmen arguing! Is all that discussion and debate about you?

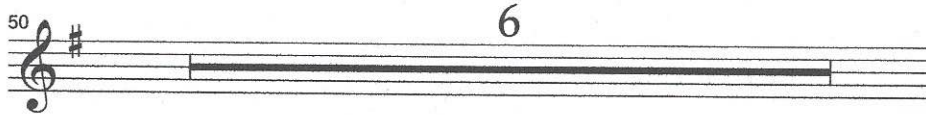

GEORGE: Yeah, and I'm one of the lucky ones. Most bills never even get this far. I hope they decide to report on me favorably. Otherwise I may die.

TOM: Die?

GEORGE: Yeah, die in committee. Oh, but it looks like I'm gonna live! Now I go to the House of Representatives and they vote on me.

TOM: What happens if they say, "yes"?

GEORGE: Then I go to the Senate and the whole thing starts all over again!

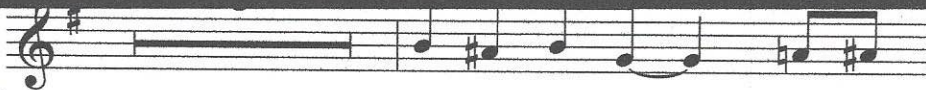

TOM: Oh no!

GEORGE: Oh, yes!
